

16th Stable Isotope Network Austria (SINA) Meeting

22th & 23th NOVEMBER, 2018

Graz, Austria

Second Circular

<https://meeting.sina.or.at>

The 16th SINA meeting is jointly organized by the Institute of Applied Geosciences (Graz University of Technology), the Institute of Earth Sciences (Graz University) and JR-AquaConSol.

The meeting aims to bring together researchers and students in an informal workshop-like atmosphere to improve communication and interaction within and across disciplines and institutions. The meeting will include invited and contributed talks, as well as poster contributions.

Date and Venue

The SINA 2018 will take place on November 22-23, 2018 in Graz, Austria. The conference will be held at the TU Graz, Lecture Hall 2, Alte Technik Campus, Rechbauerstraße 12, 8010 Graz.

Scientific program

The scientific program covers broad scientific spectrum from fundamental to applied isotope research and their related disciplines. Topics will be presented as oral or poster presentations. The conference language is English.

Keynote speakers:

Stefano Bernasconi (ETH Zürich, Switzerland) "Measuring the temperature of geological processes with clumped isotopes: current state and future opportunities."

Michael Böttcher (IOW Warnemünde, Germany) „Stable isotopes as tracers in (Paleo-) hydrography and biogeochemistry of the Baltic Sea“

Invited lecture

Anton Eisenhauer (IFM Geomar, Kiel, Germany) „Calcium Isotopes - Sensitive biomarkers for early diagnosis of osteoporosis and renal dysfunction“

Accommodation

Participants can find general information on Graz accommodations (all categories), e.g. at www.graztourismus.at

Registration

Please register electronically at the conference website:
